Dear Sir/Madam

Re: Felix Roonan

This reference is written for Mr Felix Roonan, a communications technician with this firm for a period of 6 years. The writer, Paul Mobbs, has been the Managing Director of this firm for 11 years.

I have known Mr Roonan for a period of 6 years as an employee and I knew him for 3 years when he worked for a competitor.

I am aware that Mr Roonan has been charged with driving at Bathurst in excess of the prescribed concentration of alcohol.

I have always found Mr Roonan to be an honest person of fine character who displays a high sense of responsibility in all his tasks within this company. He supervises staff with sensitivity and directness and is well respected by his employees and the clients who rely on his expertise.

The nature of Mr Roonan's work is such that he drives around New South Wales supervising and working on isolated communications stations for Telstra, Optus and Commonwealth and State authorities. Were he to be unable to drive he would not be able to fulfil his role, and if it were in excess of 3 months we would have to employ someone to fill his place. This would be a tragedy for Mr Roonan and a great loss for our firm.

I am prepared to give evidence as to Mr Roonan's character and the other matters attested to in this reference.

Paul Mobbs B Bus. MBS (Deakin)
Managing Director
